CAMPSITE REGULATIONS

Liability: The Nobis d'Anjou campsite may not be held liable in the case of theft, loss or damage of any nature whatsoever during or following a stay. The management is only responsible for items left at reception.

Insurance covering your civil liability is compulsory for a stay on the campsite grounds (please check the vacation clause in your insurance contract covering risks of fire and water damage).

1* Visitors: Any visitors from outside the campsite visiting holidaymakers may only be admitted to the campsite under the responsibility of their hosts. They must identify themselves and register at reception in order to pay the specific charge for visitors. For identification purposes a deposit of €10 per person will be requested for wristbands and vehicles must be parked in the car park outside the campsite. Departure before 11 pm. Visitors do not have access to the swimming pool.

2* Swimming pool: Opening of the pools from 05/04/2025 to 18/09/2025. The management reserves the right to alter opening hours or close the swimming pools for technical, hygienic or safety reasons. If for reasons outside our control (bad weather, water quality, etc.) the water park has to be closed, this shall not give rise to any refund.

It is forbidden to wear long shorts, Bermuda shorts, T-shirts and shoes in the water. Swim costume is obligatory, boxer swimming trunks are accepted. Young children must be dressed in a specialized diaper for swimming and may not be naked under any circumstances. For reasons of security and comfort, access to the waterpark is forbidden to any person from outside the campsite.

The SPA is a relaxation area, not a playground. Forbidden for children under 12. Priority to adults.

Maximum 10 people. Diving and ballooning are forbidden in the pool area.

3* Wearing of the wristband: (provided on your arrival) is COMPULSORY at all times until the end of your stay. It provides access to entertainment and swimming pools, helps to increase security within the campsite and identifies you as a customer.

4* The campsite barriers are open between 7.30 am and 11 pm. Traffic movement is forbidden between 11 pm and 7.30 am to ensure peace and quiet for campers. To access the interior of the campsite, you must be in possession of the access code which will be given to you on the day of your arrival (you will be asked to pay a deposit of €15).

5* Charcoal barbecues are allowed on the campsite under certain conditions (see reception). For your safety, it is preferable to use an electric plancha or a gas barbecue. Collective charcoal barbecues are at your disposal free of charge. They must be maintained and emptied at the end of each use. Never throw ashes without first soaking them with water and making sure there is no risk of combustion. A fire extinguisher is available in case of emergency.

Individual gas barbecues can be hired at reception. Cleaning is your responsibility.

6* The Nobis d'Anjou campsite reserves the right to use any types of video or photographic media on which you and your children may appear during your stay for the publicity requirements of the campsite (website, brochures). If you do not wish so, do please inform the campsite management in writing.

7* The camp manager has the duty to penalise any serious breaches of the regulations and if necessary to expel the perpetrators.

The lessee agrees to fully comply with and abide by the regulations posted inside the campsite; any violation or failure may result in sanctions and in some cases the termination of the contract.

8* Rental accommodation and pitch prices are given inclusive of tax with 10 % VAT at the rate applicable on the day when they were fixed. Any later change to the applicable VAT rate occurring between the time when the prices were fixed and invoicing for the stay will give rise to a corresponding change in the price inclusive of tax, which the customer shall accept unconditionally.

9* Any disputes shall fall under the sole jurisdiction of the District Court.

10* Under the provisions of the consumers Code regarding «the consumer dispute mediation process», the customer can enter a consumer ombudsman within a maximum time of 1 year, and only after entering the customer service campsite by recorded delivery.

The coordinates of the Ombudsman may be contacted by the customer are:

CM2C - 14 RUE ST JEAN - 75017 PARIS - TEL 0189470014

11* The campsite is a private area reserved for campers only, not a place for walks or other uses by non-residents.

Visitors: All persons from outside the campsite visiting campers may be admitted to the campsite under the responsibility of those receiving them. They must present themselves at reception with the guest and declare their identity to the management and pay the specific visitor fee.

12* The campsite management declines all responsibility for damage caused to a holidaymaker's personal property by another holidaymaker or their beneficiaries. Should this be the case, the holidaymaker must be held liable.

13* All drinks consumed in the bar or snack bar must be paid for when the order is placed. The establishment does not extend credit. It is forbidden to bring food or drinks from outside on to the restaurant area or its terraces.
